

"Passing Shots With The Champions"

2006 SUMMER TENNIS CLINICS

(From the WVIAC Website – press release) “52 was the magic number for the Salem International men's tennis team on Saturday, April 22nd 2006. The Tigers downed top-seeded Shepherd 5-3 at the Charleston Tennis Center to earn their first WVIAC Tournament title in 52 years. SIU's upset victory also ended a 52-match win streak against WVIAC opponents for Shepherd. With this triumph SIU's coach Florin Marton, now has the distinct honor of holding a conference crown in two sports simultaneously, as he is also the Coach of the Tigers' 2005-2006 WVIAC Soccer Championship Team.”

“Passing Shots With The Champions” tennis clinics are a great opportunity for the young tennis hopeful, as the clinics are designed to meet the needs of this age group, from basic individual balance and skill to game fundamentals, all in a non-competitive, instructional and, before anything else, fun set-up.
